

Chancellor's Volunteer of the Year Award

20

Nominations are now open for the Chancellor's Volunteer of the Year Award. This award recognises outstanding volunteer contributions to the UTS Community in 2010.

The winner receives a $1000 cash grant and a trophy, presented at the UTS Union Annual Dinner on Friday 17 September 2010.

In order for your nomination to be valid, you must be nominated by a member of the UTS Community other than yourself. Please note that award nominees must be currently enrolled students at the University of Technology, Sydney.

Examples of volunteer contribution to the UTS Community include involvement in:

- UTS Union Sport or Activities Clubs or Societies
- UTS Peer Network Society
- UTS Events, including Info Day, Advisory Day, Orientation, Semester Parties, Fair Day etc
- Any other instance where a student has volunteered his or her time and skills to be involved in a University or Union event or program.

Entries close Friday 3 September 2010. For selection criteria visit www.utsunion.uts.edu.au
